

So Many Opportunities

In Burnaby's public schools, we work together to provide inclusive, welcoming environments, and engaging learning opportunities to inspire each child to reach their potential.

Program options allow students to explore their specific interests and passions in greater depth. These include language and arts programs, sports academies, programs for highly able learners, summit programs, and an AP Capstone™ program.

